THE ACADEMY CLINICS

The ACADEMY provides quality instruction by a highly skilled coaching staff. Our staff is comprised of our local college and high school coaches. This Boca Hoops Season, The ACADEMY Clinics will be conducted by Jeff Price, the head coach of the Lynn University Men's Basketball team and his coaching staff.

Our main focus is to teach the fundamentals, individual skill development, and understanding of the game. Each ACADEMY session will consist of players participating in "stations" that will teach a variety of skills including ball handling, shooting, passing, team offense, and individual/team defense concepts. Repetition is the name of the game, and at The ACADEMY there will be limited enrollment of players per session to ensure that each player can get a sufficient amount of teaching.

In Boca Hoops tradition, we strive to guarantee that each player who participates will take away a better understanding of fundamentals, drills for practicing at home, and most importantly they will have fun! See you at The ACADEMY!
